The Black Panther Party (BPP) is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It formerly advocated the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government. Since early 1971, it has preached a policy of "survival pending revolution."

b7c The Visitors Registrar of the Alameda County Jail, Oakland, California, set forth that [REDACTED] visited HUEY P. NEWTON on the following dates and listed her relationship as a friend:

12/18/67

3/18/68

4/26/68

4/29/68

5/23/68

5/31/68

HUEY P. NEWTON was then known as the Minister of Defense of the BPP and was one of two co-founders of the BPP. NEWTON had been convicted of voluntary manslaughter of an Oakland policeman in October, 1972, which conviction was subsequently reversed.

The Venceremos Brigade (VB) was formed in June, 1969, by a coalition of New Left organizations to encourage American youth to travel to Cuba in defiance of a ban on travel to that country by the United States Department of State. The ostensible purpose of the travel was to assist the Castro regime in the harvesting of sugar cane and other agricultural products and to give young Americans the experience of living in a revolutionary Communist country.
