Third World Women's Alliance (TWWA)
Extremist Matter
Characterization of Subversive Organization

The September-October 1971 issue of "Triple Jeopardy", ideological organ of the Third World Women's Alliance (TWWA), stated that the foundation for the TWWA was laid in December, 1968, when a black women's caucus was formed within the Student National Coordinating Committee (SNCC). It was known as the Black Women's Alliance but with expansion to include all Third World Women the name was changed to the TWWA. Its announced objective is the elimination of the triple oppression of Third World Women, imperialism, racism and sexism through the creation of a socialist society. It is located at 26 West 20th Street, New York, NY, and is independent of SNCC.

(A characterization of SNCC should be used in conjunction with the above.)
