

FREE JUAN OTERO

Victim of a campaign
by vengeful Bronx
cops and angry contractors in the building trades, long a stronghold of racism.

family man, educational specialist, respected community activist, a young father with no police record, working for equality in the construction trades.
For his activities, he was...

FRAMED

on two robbery charges, without any evidence ever found in his home or car...robberies which took place while he was visiting and entertaining friends ...framed by the efforts of a personal vendetta by South Bronx police -- who knew Otero from his community work -- in collaboration with corrupt construction contractors...

CONVICTED

by a jury, fooled by the prosecutor's manipulation and blinded by its own racism and the disinterest of an attorney who encouraged Juan not to "make a political case out of this." Today, Juan is in prison, serving a five year sentence. He must be

HE MUST BE FREED

by us, those people who have freed Angela Davis, the Berrigans, and who have kept Carlos Feliciano out of jail. Juan must walk the streets, if we are to turn back the vicious repression which is sweeping this country.
