INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the wonderful world of convict cooking! I want to thank everyone who contributed recipes, and other material for this book.

Inside these pages you will find recipes from prisoners all over the United States. Some of these recipes are very simple to make, requiring nothing more than a few can goods and dried soups from your commissary and a stinger or a hot-pot to recipes that need items that have to be "obtained" from the prison kitchen, access to a hotplate and/or oven. Most of these recipes are easily fixed in your cell, or even on the run from the police!

There are recipes in here that can satisfy even the sweetest of sweet-tooths. How about some Freaky Fudge Cheesecake Pie, several great tasting milk shakes, or how does some Chocolate Peanut Butter Pudding sound?

Want some meaty spreads for you and your partners to sink your teeth into, but don't have alot of money to spend at the store? Try some of these mouth watering spreads for which the ingredients are easily found on the cellblock or outside on the yard: Rodent Stew, Stewed Rodent or even some Puerto Rican Pigeon Soup. Maybe those are a little too strange for your tastes, in that case try some of these: Jailcell Spaghetti Spicy V8 Jack Mack, or even some Slacker Pizza.

And just to keep you laughing while you're waiting for your spread to cook, I've also included some other stuff, there are some cartoons, jokes, funny stories, as well as a dictionary of convict prison-slang, (for you inmates!)

Several people have sent in instructions on how to put together a stinger, one burner stove, and even an oven in your cell. But because prison mailrooms are notorious for denying anything that they consider to be a "threat to the security of the institution" I've had to leave that information out so that everyone would be able to get their book. Besides, if you're a real convict you can figure out all of that stuff for yourself, and if you can't, then I suggest that you go and hang-out with the inmates!

A GLOSSARY OF PRISON SLANG WORDS AND COMMONLY HEARD PHRASES

- Cadillac - The best of anything: cell, food, job, etc.

KERMIT'S LEGS

- | | |
|---------------------------|-------------------------|
| 8 Lg frog legs 3-4 inches | 1 Cup of flour |
| 1 Sm onion diced | 1 Can of condensed milk |
| Butter/oil for frying | Salt & pepper to taste |
| Garlic powder to taste | Chili powder to taste |

Catch four large bullfrogs in the fields. Cut legs off and sneak them in. Wash well. Place flour in bowl with garlic, salt & pepper, and chili powder. You will need access to a stove or hotplate. Place frying pan on stove/hotplate, fill $\frac{1}{4}$ way with butter. Put in diced onion. Dip legs into milk and roll in the flour mixture. Place into butter and cook each side of leg for 20 minutes. Bust open a bag of potato chips and pop open an ice cold soda.

PUERTO RICAN PIGEON SOUP

- | | |
|---|------------------------------|
| 1 Lb of skinned & deboned
pigeon meat; cubed | 2 Tsp of chili powder |
| 1 Cup of chopped green or sweet red peppers | 1 Tsp of garlic powder |
| 1 Cup of cooked rice | 2 14oz cans of chicken broth |
| | 1 Cup of corn (from kitchen) |
| | Cooking oil |

Coat a large saucepan with oil and heat over medium heat for 1 minute. Add pigeon, pepper, garlic powder, chili powder, and cook for 3-5 minutes, stirring often. Add broth, corn and rice. Heat to a boil. Reduce heat to low. Cook for 10-15 minutes. Serve with flour tortillas used for dipping. NOTE: If you are not able to catch any pigeons (or they have already been used up you can use chicken instead!) You can use chicken flavored dry soup seasoning packs to make the broth.

RODENT STEW #1

2 Good sized rodents	Vegetables chopped up
2 Cups of water	Seasonings to taste

Skin and de-gut rodents. Cut rodent meat into small pieces. Don't worry about the bones, most are too tiny to get completely out. Chop up vegetables, use potatoes carrots and onions for sure, plus whatever else you can "borrow" from the kitchen. Put meat, vegetables and the seasonings into a large pan filled with water and let it slow cook for several hours.

RODENT STEW #2

2 Lg rodents	1 Glob of butter or oil
1 Cup of flour	Water as much as needed
1 Tsp of salt	Vegetables chopped up
½ Tsp of pepper	Seasonings to taste

Skin and clean rodents (squirrels, groundhogs etc.) Cut into quarters. Mix together salt, pepper and flour Roll meat in mixture. Heat butter or oil in cooking pot and brown pieces of meat on both sides. As soon as the meat is brown, cover with water and add in vegetables and seasonings to taste. Simmer for about 1½ hours. Be sure to check liquid occasionally and add more water if needed.

STEWED RODENT IN FOIL

1 Good sized rodent	16 Bacon strips
Seasonings to taste	Sm vegetable pieces

Completely skin and clean rodent. Cut the body into 2 portions. Season meat to taste. Wrap 8 strips of the bacon around each piece of meat. Wrap the meat and the vegetables in foil. Crimp the edges of the foil to seal completely. Cook until the meat falls off of the bone. This should really be done in an oven but you can use a one burner stove of some kind and a covered cooking pot You can also cook game birds such as grouse and pheasant in the same manner, you can even use a pigeon in a pinch! You can also substitute rabbit for all of these recipes (or whatever you can catch in the fields!).

BREAKFAST ON THE RUN

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|--|
| 3 Tbsp of dry milk | 1 Tbsp of butter/oleo |
| 1 Cup of potato flakes | 1 Cup of hot water |
| ½ Cup of cheese cut into small pieces | Garlic and chili powder salt & pepper to taste |

Add milk and butter into hot water. Stir in potato flakes and cheese until just moist. Wait 2 minutes and add any spices that you like.

BREAKFAST QUESADILA

- | | |
|---------------------------|------------------------|
| 1 Pkg of tortillas | 1 Brick of cheese |
| 1 Bell pepper sliced thin | 1 Cup of picante sauce |
| 1 Can of roast beef | |

Heat a pie pan on your buttcan stove. Heat the roast beef in a hotpot or boiling water. Pull the roast beef apart until it's stringy looking. Place a tortilla on heated pie pan. Place cheese and roast beef on the tortilla. Add the sliced bell (or jalapeno) pepper. As the cheese melts pour on the salsa. Fold tortilla in half. Pull it out of the pan, and eat it immediately while telling your partners that the next on is their!!

BREAKFAST PORRIDGE WITH A TWIST

- | | |
|------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1 Cup of oats | 2 Cups of water |
| ¼ Cup of dry milk | ¼ Cup of raisins |
| ¼ Cup of chopped fruit | ¼ Cup of chopped nuts |
| ½ Tsp of cinnamon | Sugar to taste |
| Glob of butter | Dash of salt |

Bring oatmeal, dry milk, fruit, salt, and water to a boil. Simmer, stirring often until porridge is the desired consistency. Top with butter, sugar, cinnamon, and nuts. Takes about 10 minutes once the water boils. Substitute ¼ cup of oatmeal or ¼ cup of Grapenuts or Shredded Wheat. It gives it a different taste and texture.

Merritt Island, FL

COFFEE CAN OMELETTE

3 Eggs ¼ Cup of grated cheese
¼ Cup of salsa ¼ Cup of chopped ham
Salt & pepper to taste

Crack eggs into a bowl and whip until mixed. Add in the cheese, ham, salsa and seasonings. Pour the mixture into a plastic bag that won't leak. Place bag in a hot pot, coffee pot, or very hot water and let cook 10-15 minutes.

David Jenkins
Rosharon, TX

BREAKFAST TACOS

1 Lg potato 1 Tbsp of butter
4 Eggs 1 Lg onion chopped
Bacon or sausage cut up Seasonings to taste

Skin and slice potato. Melt butter in a frying pan. Add potato, meat, and onion. Fry and stir. Beat eggs pour over other ingredients. Cook in pan until the eggs reach the desired consistency. Add spices.

Keith Tate
Ione, CA

THE SLACKER BREAKFAST

1 Bagel or rice/oat cake 1 Jar of peanut butter
1 Sm pkg of peanuts 1 Sm pkg of raisins

Spread peanut butter on bagel or rice/oat cake. Top it with raisins or other dried fruit, peanuts or other toppings of your choice. There is no limit to what you can do with this.

THE EYE OPENER SYRUP

2 Cups of ground coffee ½ Cup of sugar

Boil coffee continuously. Add sugar a spoonful at a time and stir. Boil until almost a syrup. It thickens as it cools down. Pour over pancakes for the best damn syrup that tastes good and wakes you up!

to the walls, and then run down to the floor. The very worst part of the whole thing was seeing my cellie's brand new $200 typewriter that he'd had to get special permission from the warden to have sent in from the world, sitting on his bunk completely covered in grease

It took me two days of hard scrubbing and cleaning, using hot soapy water, to get the cell and everything else in the cell cleaned up. It also cost me $100 to have my cellie's typewriter sent out and professionally cleaned and to make sure that the grease hadn't hurt the electronics in any way, and then have it shipped back into the prison.

Never again have I ever forgotten to unplug either my stinger or hotpot when leaving the cell!!

Steven Bomber
Huntsville, TX

One night back in 1988, while I was assigned to the Coffield unit of the Texas prison system, I had just dropped in a can of chili and a can of sloppy joe sauce into a gallon sized butt-can, filled the can up with water and dropped in my stinger to cook up a spread for me and my partners there on our cell block.

At the same time that I was doing all of this, the block officer was just finishing running a dayroom call. My partner, who lived down the run from me, stopped by my cell and said that I needed to come to the dayroom because of some trouble that was supposed to kick off. Not being the kind of person to let my partners down, I very quickly grabbed my shoes and smokes and jumped out the door just as it was closing and forgetting all about the food that was cooking in the back of my cell.

About 45 minutes later, after the trouble that was supposed to have happened didn't show, my friends and I were sitting at a table in the back of the dayroom laughing, bullshitting, and swapping lies with each other, when all of a sudden we heard what sounded like a small caliber "gunshot" (I was living close to the dayroom so the noise was really loud). A second later there was another "gunshot" sound. Everyone in the day room was at the dayroom bars trying to look down the run and wondering just what the noise had been.

At about this same time, people in their cells started complaining about the electricity being off. Suddenly remembering about the can goods cooking in my cell, I started to get a real bad feeling in my stomach and was pretty sure what the noise had been. Yelling for the block officer and getting him to come up to the day room, I explained what I thought had happened. He just looked at me as if I were completely stupid and opened the dayroom door. I ran down the run to my cell and I just stood there looking in and not really believing what I was seeing. The water in the buttcan had boiled down and the cans had exploded from the intense, prolonged heat of the boiling water. There was chili and sloppy joe all over everything. The walls were smeared with lines of grease where the stuff had splattered on

QUICK & EASY TOPPINGS

- | | |
|---|------------------|
| #1 Brown sugar | #2 Jelly |
| #3 Applesauce | #4 Peanut butter |
| #5 Combination of all/some of the above | |

APPLE SYRUP

- | | |
|------------------------------|----------------------------|
| $\frac{1}{2}$ Cup of sugar | $\frac{1}{2}$ Cup of water |
| 1 Pkg of hot apple cider mix | |

JELLY SYRUP

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|------------------|
| $\frac{1}{2}$ Cup of jelly (any kind) | 3 Tbsp of butter |
|---------------------------------------|------------------|

HONEY SYRUP

- | | |
|--|-------------------|
| 1 Cup of honey | 1 Tbsp of vanilla |
| 2 Tbsp of water | 2 Tbsp of butter |
| $\frac{1}{2}$ Cup of coconut (if you can get it) | |

Heat all ingredients to desired consistency. These instructions are for all three syrup recipes above.

1 Cup of water

Combine sugar, milk, water, and chocolate in a pan. Cook over medium heat stirring constantly until mixture comes to a boil. Boil, stirring occasionally to prevent sticking until mixture thickens and becomes a syrup if dropped in cold water. At this point, remove from heat and add butter then cool until lukewarm. Beat until the fudge thickens and quickly spread on cake. You can also serve as fudge after it cools completely.

KITTY KAT CASSEROLE

They call it Salmon Casserole,
I call it a dish from Hell.
We get this stuff all the time,
We get tired enough to yell.

They say that it's good for you,
This healthy food that they serve.
But if you tell them what you really think,
You'd swear that you had touched a nerve.

I just wonder where they find this fish,
Is it cat food that "Nine Lives" once trashed?
Or was it found along a river bank,
Just to save the state a little cash?

It's something special this great dish,
That is always served to us from a cup.
We gag it down and it churns around,
And always comes back up!

TAHITIAN TUNA

- | | |
|----------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 2 Cans of tuna | 1 Can of fruit salad |
| 2 Pkgs of trail mix | 1 Jar of salad dressing |
| 1 Bottle of ketchup | 1 Jar of mustard |
| 2 Pkgs of jalapeno peppers | 1 Loaf of bread |
| 2 Orange Cool-offs | 1 Bag of chips (your choice) |
| 3 Spoons of pickle relish | 3 Spoons dried bell pepper |
| 1 Sm chopped onion | $\frac{1}{2}$ Tsp of garlic powder |

You will need at least two large bowls. In one bowl add 3 spoons salad dressing, 3 spoons ketchup, 1 spoon mustard, (3 spoons relish and $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp of garlic powder, if available) together and set aside. Drain fruit and squeeze out all juice into cup. Divide juice between 2 cups, add orange Cool-offs and top with water or ice to make Orange Passion Fruit juice drink. In another bowl dice fruit pieces with can lid. Remove and discard seeds from jalapenos, then dice (removing seeds is optional) Add jalapenos to fruit. (Add the bell pepper and onion to chopped fruit and jalapenos if available.) Blend in the dressing mixture with fruit. Open tuna and squeeze off water from can. Mix flaked tuna into fruit mixture Add two packages of trail mix and toss to coat. Serve on bread with chips of choice and Orange Passion Fruit juicie drinks. Makes six nice sandwiches. Or enjoy this dish from a bowl with crackers, using only 1 tuna, 1 trail mix, do not dice fruit and cut the dressing recipe in half.

DEAD HORSE HAMBURGERS

During the summer of '82, on the Ferguson unit of the Texas prison system, I was going to work one morning and as the field squad that I was assigned to started down this long sloping hill towards where the field trailers were at, we passed right by the horse barn. As we were walking past we could see that there was a dead horse just laying there, right in front of the barn. We went on down the hill and got our aggies (hoes) off of the tool wagon and started working right behind the barn where the sewage ponds are. We worked in that area all morning until we stopped for lunch.

We duced up at the bottom of the hill and started up towards the back gate. As we again passed by the barn we could see that the dead horse was gone. Because of where the field squads were working we could see both sides of the road that came past the back gate but not the back gate itself and nobody in any of the squads saw a trailer come and get the horse. Everybody was laughing and joking about how the kitchen was going to cook the horse for supper that night.

We came back out and worked the second half and at one point the field Major told us to be sure and work up a good appetite. Being a young first timer I didn't really think that they would actually serve meat from a dead horse, of which they probably had no idea what the horse had even died of.

After coming in and showering, we went to the chow hall and was served hamburgers! In those days getting a hamburger was rare, something that only happened on special occasions such as holidays, and this day sure wasn't any kind of special occasion or holiday.

The horse burgers were pretty good, except for an unusual sour taste. Since then, I've eaten some really strange food that has come out of a prison chowhall.

And for all of you youngsters out there, here is some advice for you: Don't think about it, just eat it

GOOD EATING!

A woman spent months trying to poison her ex-con husband. She didn't know that he was immune because he'd eaten in the prison chow-hall for so many years.

COOK: The best things that I cook are meatloaf and a peach cobbler.

CONVICT: Yeah? Well, which one is this?

Our prison has been serving us so much dehydrated food lately, that when I went out into the rain the other day I gained 50 pounds!

Big Bubba comes from a family of really big eaters. After each meal the officers have to do a special count.

There must be a religious cook here. Every meal tastes just like the last supper.

Our cooks always serve us salmon. Salmon patties, salmon soup, salmon salad, salmon, salmon, SALMON! It is so bad that twice a year I have to fight the urge to go up stream and spawn.

The cooking is really getting better around here. All the lumps are bite-sized.

My mom's hash always made me nervous while eating it, I never knew what she put in it. The hash here makes me nervous too, that's because I KNOW what's in it!

Our cooks get all of their recipes from a magazine. It's called ROADKILL MONTHLY.

OLD CON: The food here in this unit is really bad.

NEW CON: Yeah? Just how bad is it?

OLD CON: We ALWAYS pray before we eat it!

When we have chicken on the menu, the cooks always serve it in a special way. With a wing and a prayer!

The bake shop isn't any better. Just the other day we found out that Betty Crocker has declared war against us!

BASIC CREAM SAUCE

Milk	Thin	Medium	Thick
(4 Tbsp dry/1 cup water)	1 Cup	1 Cup	1 Cup
Flour	1 Tbsp	2 Tbsp	3 Tbsp
Margarine	1 Tbsp	2 Tbsp	3 Tbsp

Melt margarine in a pan over a low heat, add flour stirring constantly, to prevent burning, until mixture is as smooth as possible. Add milk slowly, stirring constantly to prevent burning. Keep stirring over a low heat until it is thick enough for what you need. This takes about 5 minutes. Take it off the heat and add in salt and pepper to taste. Using this you can make different types of sauces for all kinds of recipes.

CHEESE SAUCE

1 Cup basic cream sauce 1 Cup of cheese chunks

Make basic cream sauce first. Cut the cheese into small bits and add it at the end with the pan off the burner. CHEESE BURNS! Be careful.

MUSTARD CHEESE SAUCE

1 Cup basic cream sauce ½ Cup of cheese chunks
 ¼ Tsp of garlic powder 1 Tbsp of mustard
 Dash of hot sauce to taste

Use the above instructions for this recipe adding in the garlic, hot sauce and mustard first to the basic cream sauce. Add in the cheese at the end.

BROWN GRAVY

1 Cup basic cream sauce ¼ Cup finely chopped onions
 ¼ Tsp of garlic powder 2 Tbsp soy sauce or tamari

Add a beef or chicken bouillon cube or soup flavoring pkg instead of the soy for a "meat" option. Don't do both or it will be too salty. This sauce is perfect with a bunch of biscuits for breakfast. All ingredients can be had through the prison kitchen.

PEANUT BUTTER GRAVY

1 Cup of water ½ Cup smooth peanut butter
¼ Tsp of garlic 3 Tbsp of dry milk
1½ Tbsp beef soup mix (liq) 1 Dash of hot sauce

Heat water until very hot. Remove from heat. Mix in all ingredients and mix really well. Place the mixture back on heat and heat until very hot. Pour over noodles. This makes 1 serving

BBQ SAUCE

2 Pints of ketchup ½ Cup of orange juice
½ Tbsp of black pepper 1 Dash of hot sauce
1 Dash garlic powder (opt) 2 Tbsp dill pickle vinegar
1/8 Cup of sugar

Cook all ingredients over med-heat for 1 hour. Let it cool well. Add to any spread for a better taste.

SWEET & SOUR SAUCE

Use syrup as sweet sauce Use grapefruit juice for the sour sauce

When making a spread, keep sauces separate! Example with chicken, ham or tuna, cut into chunks and cook in small amounts of syrup. Cook dry soup/noodles with its soup mix. Pour off water. Mix meat with noodles leaving the meat in chunks and add small drops of syrup on top of meat. Pour small amounts of grapefruit juice into cup on the side to dip spoons of food into before eating.

BUTTERSCOTCH CANDY TOPPING

6 Butterscotch candies 2 Tbsp of syrup
½ Tbsp of sugar

Crush butterscotch into powder. Add sugar and syrup. Mix well. Put into small bag or jar and heat in hotpot or very hot water for 1-2 hours or until the mixture is well melted. Remove from heat and let cool. Dip apples etc. into mixture and let harden.

BEAN DIP

2 Cans of refried beans 2 Cans of chili no beans
1 Bottle of squeeze cheese 2 Pkgs jal peppers diced
2 Plastic bags that won't leak

Empty refried beans into one plastic bag and chili into the other one. Close both tight and heat in either 2 hotpots or use stingers to heat up water. Cook for 1 hour. Once everything is cooked, dump into a big spread bowl. Stir in cheese and peppers. Be sure to mix every thing really good.
